

RACHICHI

LET THERE BE JAZZ

Rachichi entertains audiences throughout the Northwest since summer of 2007. Although considered a jazz ensemble, Rachichi crosses into blues and soft rock with the original writing of Roger Espinor and carefully selected cover material. Fans suggest the band sounds like a cross between Steely Dan and Ray Charles. The smooth and wide-range vocals of Allie Silverberg is reminiscent of the great New York blues singers and every once-in-a-while Eran Schweitzer takes you back to the licks of Carlos Santana.

The band was formed in the summer of 2007 with the marriage of two musicians, Roger and Debby Espinor. Wanting to create a new sound, the couple has added a strong rhythm and jazz bass with Gary Giacci who moved to Portland after playing music for years in the Bend area of Oregon. Adding the youth of Allie and Eran make for fresh interpretations and bring new life into jazz standards.

You can hear Rachichi at local venues such as the Heathman and Vie de Boheme or drive out to Maryhill Winery for a summer afternoon of music. With the recent release of HOT SEVEN SEVEN, Rachichi now has two albums on the market available through C.D. Baby.

"Thank you so much for the great performance and event last week. The energy coming out from the band was great!"

Dietre Sudre Vie de Boheme

"I am glad RACHICHI fit so beautifully this year at the 25th Annual Bite of Oregon. RACHICHI is such a talented group and the performance was very impressive. The live performance was as entertaining as the CD, and I am eager to see where RACHICHI lands as more people discover their musical talents"
